Project Overview

Goal, Vision, & Areas of Interest

HONORS COLLEGE
JAMES MADISON UNIVERSITY

Project Goals

Our project focuses on increasing the presence of male College of Business students within the Honors College through research and advisory.

Vision

Our vision is to increase Honors College interest among male College of Business students through stronger campus involvement, targeted events and COB partnerships, informed student survey insights, and a cohesive, consistent brand guideline.

Areas of Interest

Campus Engagement

Student Visibility

Social Media

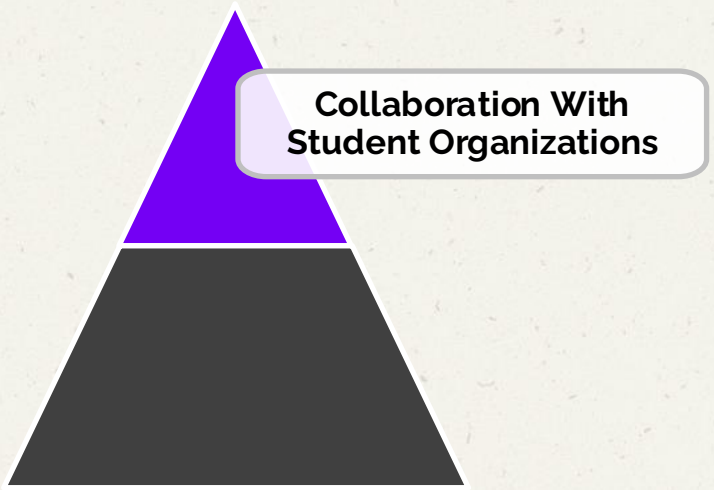

Campus Engagement

Collaboration With Student Organizations

JAMES MADISON UNIVERSITY

Campus Engagement

Campus engagement events significantly increase student awareness and applications, turning interest into action

The Proposition

Propose a series of joint events with COB student organizations such as The Madison Consulting Club or Financial Professionals Club to highlight how the Honors College supports business students through academic opportunities, mentorship, and professional development. Events would include co-hosted workshops, networking sessions, and guest speakers featuring Honors and COB alumni who can share career insights and showcase the value of the Honors experience for business majors.

Supporting Data

77%

of marketers say events are the most effective marketing channel for their company.

52%

of students who attended 2+ recruitment events applied, compared to only 8% of students who attended none.

Campus Engagement

Pop-up Events

HONORS COLLEGE
JAMES MADISON UNIVERSITY

Campus Engagement

Campus engagement events significantly increase student awareness and applications, turning interest into action

The Proposition

The Honors College should host pop-up events within the College of Business to educate students on how to apply and highlight the benefits of joining. Events could take place in high-traffic or engaging locations such as the Forum or employer visit spaces, providing a convenient, interactive way for COB students to learn about the Honors experience and get their questions answered.

Honors Newsletter Refresh

- Monthly, on-brand newsletter highlighting events, deadlines, advising, and student stories why you're reaching out
- Designed for email, social, and print so underclassmen see Honors in multiple places

Campus Visit Page & In-Person Displays

- High-impact handout and poster used during CHOICES, campus tours, and info sessions
- Quickly answers "What is Honors?" and "Why should I join?" for prospective and first-year students

Targeted Emails & Welcome Visuals

- Short, visual emails to admitted and exploring students that showcase benefits, outcomes, and next steps
- Links directly to "Learn more," "Visit Honors," or "Start your application"

Social & Digital Signage Templates

- Instagram story/post and digital-sign templates reusing newsletter content
- Keeps Honors' messaging and values consistently visible in first-year residence halls and student spaces

GOAL: make Honors unmissable for underclassmen by turning every touchpoint into a clear answer to "Why Honors and why now?"

Student Visibility

The Madison Consulting Club

SEE: Capture Attention Early

- What students see*: newsletter headlines, lobby posters, visit materials, and social content.
- Why it matters*: Visual infographics significantly boost understanding and recall versus text alone, so key Honors messages actually stick when students first encounter them

KNOW: Connect to Values

- 91%: joined Honors for competitive advantage in jobs/grad school
- 90%: wanted deeper learning and 90% valued priority registration
- 85%: were influenced by connections with faculty

ACT: Interest to Application

- Visually rich emails are more engaging; campaigns with images see 42% higher click-through rates than text-only emails, making students more likely to explore Honors further
- During campus visits, one-pagers are high-leverage connectors that shape decision-making – elevating Honors increases applications

NEW HONORS NEWSLETTER

NEW STUDENT ONE-PAGER

79% increase in Honors enrollment since 2017

288% growth in first-year applications

Instagram Revamp

- Content Varies Post-to-Post
- Largely Announcement Driven
- Limited Student Content

Example

- Consistent Visual
- Mix of student centered and professional posts
- Upcoming events and event recaps

Our Branding Guidelines

Colors

Font

- Montserrat
- Most important: use the same font on all posts for consistency

Content Propositions

- Content based on specific majors (ex. COB student takeover)
- Post recaps of Honors Events so students can see what they look like
- Student tips: Honors resources, study tips etc.
